

Logic analysis provides a picture of how quickly a person can identify an issue or a problem and come up with the answer or solution. The results show six different aspects of the person's problem-solving intelligence and logical ability.

Logical reasoning and speed of decision making

Analytical Solving of Problem

